

Is It Ever Right To Lie?

Joshua 2:3-6 – "So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the country." Then the woman took the two men and hid them. So she said, 'Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from. And it happened as the gate was being shut, when it was dark that the men went out. Where the men went I do not know; pursue them quickly, for you may overtake them.'" (But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof.)"

I. The Question

Is it ever right to lie?

Some answer that it is always wrong to lie. If Christians are ever placed in Rahab's position, they should simply tell the truth and trust God to deliver them. This position will often attempt to bifurcate Rahab's action into a moral component (hiding the spies) and an immoral component (lying to the soldiers). This is necessary because of the favorable treatment she received from Joshua and the commendation she receives in Hebrews 11.

Others argue it is acceptable to lie to protect the innocent from death. They believe that sometimes it is necessary to lie and if Christians are ever placed in Rahab's position they should lie just like Rahab.

While it is commonly believed by many on both sides of this question that Rahab lied in the account given in Joshua 2, this brief essay will seek to demonstrate that Rahab did not lie and that both her speech and actions are in view in her commendation in Hebrews 11.

II. Lies Are Always Wrong

1) Lies are forbidden by the 9th commandment – You shall not bear false (Hebrew: sheqer) witness against your neighbor.

2) Satan is the father of lies. (John 8:44 You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies.) If Satan is the Father of lies and speaks out his own character when he lies and if lies are forbidden in the 9th commandment, a lie (i.e. a false witness) can never be pleasing to the Lord, who cannot lie (Titus 1:2).

3) The 9th commandment deals with interactions with neighbors, not those who are seeking to harm us. Battlefield concealment from enemy combatants in a just war is not of the devil. In Joshua 8:2 God commanded Joshua to employ battlefield concealment to hide the truth from the enemy and in Psalm 83:3 God hides the righteous from the wicked. Since God both commands and practices concealment of the righteous from the wicked, battlefield concealment is a righteous action, not a necessary evil. Evil is never just and never necessary, unavoidable, or proper as a course of human action. This means it is not a violation of the 9th commandment (i.e. a lie or deception) when we hide the truth from enemies on the battlefield or send them on wild goose chases in the opposite direction of where they want to go.

Is it ever right to lie?

III. Did Rahab Lie?

4) The Bible says that by faith Rahab did not perish with those who don't believe when she received the spies in peace. (Heb 11:31). This is a summary statement of the entire transaction described in Joshua 2 which included hiding the spies from the soldiers and then sending the soldiers on a wild goose chase. Both of these are acts of concealment. If the people of Jericho were not enemies whom God had commanded Israel to destroy, then both acts of concealment would have been sinful deception. If a child conceals forbidden candy from his parents, godly parents would recognize that action as deception (i.e. sinful concealment) regardless of whether the child said anything. Likewise with Rahab. Her concealment of the soldiers on the roof can't be morally divergent from her sending the soldiers another way. Both of those actions constitute concealment and are either both right or both wrong. Whether her actions were right or wrong depends on whether she was concealing the righteous from the wicked or the wicked from the righteous. If the spies were the enemies, then concealing them under flax on the roof of her house would have been unrighteous concealment (i.e. deception) just as much as verbally sending the soldiers "another way."

5) The Bible never says anywhere (Joshua or Hebrews) that Rahab did anything that was false (Hebrew: sheqer) or deceptive (Hebrew: hâthal) or involving lies (Hebrew: kâzab) or vain in the sense of false (Hebrew: shav). These are the words the Bible uses to describe actions that transgress the 9th commandment. For example, when Jacob accuses Laban of deception in changing his wages 10 times, he uses the word hâthal (Gen 31:7). When Moses accuses Pharaoh of deceit in not letting the children of Israel go after saying he would let them go, he uses the word hâthal (Ex 8:29). Delilah uses the same word in accusing Samson of deceiving her. She also uses kâzab in referring to Samson's actions. The Psalmist uses kâzab in Ps 116:11 when he says all men are liars.

The Old Testament uses sheqer over 100 times to describe the breaking of the 9th commandment. For example, in speaking of false witnesses, Deut 19:18 uses sheqer. It is also the word used in the 9th commandment itself. When it records that God put a lying spirit in the mouth of the false prophets it uses sheqer (1 Kings 22:23). In the many complaints that the Psalmist raises against those who have acted wickedly, the psalmist uses sheqer. Some of those actions include wrongfully rejoicing, hating wrongfully, trusting in vain (i.e. false) things, or dealing with him perversely without a cause. But none of these words are ever used to describe Rahab's actions in receiving the spies, nor are equivalent Greek words for falsehood used in Hebrews 11. It does say that in hiding the spies she acted by faith.

The word translated "hid" in the Joshua 2 account is the same word David uses to describe hiding the law of God in our heart so that we don't sin against him. This word (tsâphan) simply means to hide something. It is used to describe God hiding us in his pavilion, in the secret of his tabernacle (Psalm 27:5), Moses' mother hiding him in her home the first three months of his life, God storing up (tsâphan) goodness for those that fear him, and God hiding his people from evil conspirators (Psalm 31:20; 83:3). In following God's example of hiding the righteous from the wicked, Rahab was not transgressing any commandment; according to Hebrews 11, she was acting in faith.

Is it ever right to lie?

IV. Does Scripture Only Commend Rahab's Concealment of the Spies?

Some positions try to separate her supposed "lie" from her faithful receiving of the spies. But her sending the soldiers another way and hiding the spies were all part of and, inseparable from, receiving the spies in peace.

6) Rahab's choice was between hiding the Israelites from the soldiers or revealing the Israelites to the soldiers. Passivity in failing to hide the Israelites, such as not answering when asked if she was hiding the spies, is a less heinous form of revealing the Israelites to the soldiers because silence in a just cause is breaking the 9th commandment (WLC Question 145; 2 Tim 4:6; Acts 5:3, 8-9; Lev 5:1; De 13:8) just like speaking a lie. In other words, there are only two basic courses of actions. She is either for the Israelites or she is against them (Mark 9:40). There is no neutrality. If, by faith, she is for the Israelites, then she is against Jericho and Jericho's soldiers. If, by faith, she believes God's word and is against the soldiers, then the 9th commandment requires her to hide God's spies from the soldiers and use her ability to speak to preserve the soldiers from discovery. Some would argue that she should have hid the spies and simply been silent in the face of questioning by the soldiers. But this fails to grasp the facts of the situation. Silence in the face of questions concerning the spies seen entering her house would have been a tacit admission the spies might still be with her. It would have been seen as not cooperating with the soldiers and endangered her own life as well as the spies.

Deuteronomy 13:8 requires that we don't conceal someone worthy of death. To conceal such a person is to support their wickedness. To fail to reveal such a person is to passively support their wickedness. Passive support is wrong no less than active support. Applied to Rahab's situation, it implies failing to conceal the righteous from the wicked is to passively support the wicked and not the righteous. This is to disobey the 9th commandment as it is expressed by application in Deuteronomy 13:8 as much as concealing the wicked from the righteous. To physically conceal the spies but remain mute when asked where they are is to fail to conceal the righteous from the wicked by a tacit admission that they are still present. Certainly one should seek to do everything possible to avoid being asked in the first place. But if those efforts fail, we should do all we can to conceal the righteous from the wicked.

This should not be seen as mandating misdirection. It is certainly admitted that there is room for judgment regarding which plan is most likely to hide the righteous from the wicked. In some situations, silence may be the best option to maintain the concealment and protect the righteous from the wicked. But when all these factors are properly considered, the right course of action is that which will best conceal the righteous from the evil desires of the wicked.

7) Deception must be defined in terms of the righteous and the unrighteous. God himself hides the righteous from the unrighteous. That's not falsehood or deception because God is Truth and cannot lie. Obadiah hid the righteous from the wicked, an action that is cited in 1 Kings 18:3-4 as proof that he feared God greatly. Even though his actions hid the truth from King Ahab, nowhere does scripture describe his actions as false or deceptive. A false or deceptive action is sin. Sinful actions are neither evidence of faith nor of fearing God greatly. On the other hand, to hide the wicked from the righteous is wrong according to Deuteronomy 13:8 and therefore is deception. Rahab's faith in receiving the spies in peace is commended in Hebrews 11 because by her actions and words she concealed the righteous from the wicked.

1a1) to hide, treasure, treasure up

1a2) to lie hidden, lurk

1b) (Niphal) to be hidden, be stored up

1c) (Hiphil) to hide, hide from discovery

Exodus 2:2 – (Moses' mother hid him at his birth) And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid (tsâphan – 3fs Qal imperfect with vaw consecutive and 3ms pronominal suffix) him three months. (Describes a righteous action favorably mentioned in Hebrews 11 in that the righteous are being hidden from the wicked.)

Exodus 2:3 – And when she could no longer hide (tsâphan – Hiphil infinitive construct with 3ms suffix) him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink. (Describes a righteous action favorably mentioned in Hebrews 11 in that the righteous are being hidden from the wicked.)

Joshua 2:4 – (Rahab receiving the spies.) And the woman took the two men, and hid (tsâphan– 3fs Qal imperfect with vaw consecutive and 3ms pronominal suffix) them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were: (Describes a righteous action favorably mentioned in Hebrews 11 in that the righteous are being hidden from the wicked.)

Job 10:13 – And these things hast thou hid (tsâphan – 2ms Qal perfect) in thine heart: I know that this is with thee. (God hiding either his mercies to Job or the memory of them in his heart.)

Job 14:13 – O that thou would hide (tsâphan– 2ms Hiphil imperfect) me in the grave, that thou would keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou would appoint me a set time, and remember me! (Job requesting God to hide him or cause him to be hidden.)

Job 15:20 – The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden (tsâphan) to the oppressor.

Job 17:4 – For thou hast hid (tsâphan) their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

Job 20:26 – All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: (tsâphan) a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

Job 21:19 – God layeth up (tsâphan) his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

Appendix A: Hebrew Words for Hide

Job 23:12 – Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed (tsâphan) the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

Job 24:1 – Why, seeing times are not hidden (tsâphan) from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

Psalms 10:8 – He sits in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set (tsâphan– 3mp Qal imperfect) against the poor. (This describes a wicked hiding. However the sin is not in the mere hiding, but in the purpose for which they are hidden. These are murderers who are hiding their evil intentions. Rahad was hiding the righteous to save them from the evil intentions of the wicked.)

Psalms 17:14 – From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid (tsâphan) treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

Psalms 27:5 – For in the time of trouble he shall hide (tsâphan) me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

Psalms 31:19 – Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up (tsâphan) for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

Psalms 31:20 – Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly (tsâphan) in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

Psalms 56:6 – They gather themselves together, they hide (tsâphan) themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.

Psalms 83:3 – They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. (tsâphan)

Psalms 119:11 – Thy word have I hid (tsâphan) in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Proverbs 1:11 – If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily (tsâphan) for the innocent without cause:

Proverbs 1:18 – And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily (tsâphan) for their own lives.

Proverbs 2:1 – My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide (tsâphan) my commandments with thee;

Proverbs 2:7 – He layeth up (tsâphan) sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

Proverbs 7:1 – My son, keep my words, and lay up (tsâphan) my commandments with thee.

Proverbs 10:14 – Wise men lay up (tsâphan) knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

Appendix A: Hebrew Words for Hide

Proverbs 13:22 – A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up (tsâphan) for the just.

Proverbs 27:16 – Whosoever hideth (tsâphan) her hideth (tsâphan) the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself.

Song of Solomon 7:13 – The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up (tsâphan) for thee, O my beloved.

Jeremiah 16:17 – For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid (tsâphan) from mine eyes.

Ezekiel 7:22 – My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret (tsâphan) place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

Hosea 13:12 – The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid. (tsâphan)

Joshua 7:19 – (Joshua urging Achan not to lie in regard to his sin.) And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide (kachad) it not from me.

1 Samuel 3:17 – (Eli urging Samuel not to hide what God had told him.) And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide (kachad) it not from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide (kachad) anything from me of all the things that he said unto thee.

1 Samuel 3:18 – And Samuel told him every whit, and hid (kachad) nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good.

2 Samuel 14:18 – (David urging the old woman Joab sent not to hide the matter of her son) Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide (kachad) not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

2 Samuel 18:13 – Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid (kachad) from the king, and thou thyself would have set thyself against me.

1 Kings 13:34 – And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off,(kachad) and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

2 Chronicles 32:21 – And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off (kachad) all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

Job 4:7 – Remember, I pray thee, whoever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off? (kachad)

Job 6:10 – Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not concealed (kachad) the words of the Holy One.

Job 15:18 – Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid (kachad) it:

Job 15:28 – And he dwelleth in desolate (kachad) cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

Job 20:12 – Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, though he hide (kachad) it under his tongue;

Job 22:20 – Whereas our substance is not cut down,(kachad) but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

Job 27:11 – I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.(kachad)

Psalms 40:10 – I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed (kachad) thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Psalms 69:5 – O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid (kachad) from thee.

Appendix A: Hebrew Words for Hide

Psalms 78:4 – We will not hide (kachad) them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

Psalms 83:4 – They have said, Come, and let us cut them off (kachad) from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

Psalms 139:15 – My substance was not hid (kachad) from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

Isaiah 3:9 – The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide (kachad) it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

Jeremiah 38:14 – Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide (kachad) nothing from me.

Jeremiah 38:25 – But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide(kachad) it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

Jeremiah 50:2 – Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal (kachad) not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

Hosea 5:3 – I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid (kachad) from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

Zechariah 11:8 – Three shepherds also I cut off (kachad) in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

Zechariah 11:9 – Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off,(kachad) let it be cut off; (kachad) and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

Zechariah 11:16 – For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, (kachad) neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.
