

Women Who Abort Are Victims Too?

Yeh, right! Some Are. Most Are Not!

Snippets of conversations with some of the recent actively aborting mothers that a Christian mother has reached out to via Pro-abort Facebooks pages. She begins conversations with each woman through Facebook's private messaging service. This mother and her husband are members of a Reformed Presbyterian church in the Houston, TX area and she also spends many days a month in front of Houston-area abortion clinics.

Note: Wording in green or underlined in green is hers. She included it so you can read the "tone" and realize these mothers are not being provoked into saying these things.

Note: She did not have to dig for these quotes. This is similar to how they all typically speak. These quotes are reflective of the conversations I have been having with these mothers for 8 years. If you have more questions of this Christian mother, you can email her at gospeltractinfo@gmail.com.

I know her pastor and know her elders pay for printing the material she and other church counselors use, when they sidewalk counsel. This is not unlike what I used to hear from abortion-bound women in Sioux Falls 20 years ago.

posters with dumpster babies, beaten women and children. How much have you donated to orphanages? How many kids have you adopted? I think you are all stupid and hypocritical cunts and do nothing about other situations where living breathing people need help.

Woman > fucking baby! Tomorrow I will prove it and you can go back to passing out abortion videos at dinner. 😊

You're right. While we have helped with many ministries, many children, many homeless folks and orphans over the years,... we do not do enough.

We live like kings and queens in America, and never love our neighbors -- whether in the womb or out of it -- enough, as Jesus both taught and modeled for us.

He said I "killed his kids." I smfh, did he forget he wanted to kill them too?

Whether it's right to kill 1 kid or 3 is not determined by how much we like children or not. It is determined by God's law -- a basic understanding of morality.

Do you know what's great about America...

Free choice.

I can choose to have sex and choose abortion in the same week. You believe we have to confess our sin. Cool, God, I'll confess I fucking enjoy it.

It's your fault baby daddy is mad, he would have aborted all of them. He's not a hero because he changed mind.

You asked what I do -- I guess you meant at Dr. Rosenfeld's. I basically have helped some of the women there who have chosen to not abort with their babies and resources like housing, etc.

1. I don't need your help. 2. My boyfriend has a dog who I love she's literally the only baby I want. I don't want to lose them both and dogs are less work.

What about MY life? Im not gonna sacrifice my relationship with my boyfriend for a baby. A hookup baby from a one night stand. Go fuck a bag of dicks and for the record I think fake Christians are shitbags.

How do you know the baby isn't your boyfriend's?

I'll just call it Dexter 😊 and if I want to remember my baby I can. I fucked the wrong guy and I'm aborting the baby this week. Find some kids to adopt who need a judgmental family to love in.

I've known a ton of mothers who named their babies before dismembering them, but "Dexter" is indeed a new one. So, you've got a girl angel-baby statue lined up with a boy baby name.

You never told me what week you're in. Do you even know or is that what the sono's for tomorrow?

was pregnant with the fetus. Pregnancy makes me feel bloated. My only baby is our dog. Do you want the fetus and I'll keep the dog? 😊

Yes, God alone is the giver and taker of life. He alone has the authority to do such, which is why we all will die at some point. That is also why as genius as scientists are these days, they cannot create life from scratch.

[REDACTED]

Vacuums aren't wrong. I use animal products and I am from a family of hunters. Kill a deer and have a freezer with meat. I kill spiders and flies and it's basically the same thing as abortion. Why do we do it.. we kill deer for food and I needed to make him use a condom. Drunk me doesn't care. Unless I'm wasted I just dgaf for the most part what I ngs do or what a guy does. I didn't want my boyfriend to know about Dexter so I killed the baby. I know for long time I could rot in hell. I embraced that state of mind a long time ago

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Does "drunk you" care that you are making yourself an easy target for being raped? For crying in a bucket,

Tell me this. Are you religious at all? I'm Christian. This is an important aspect to this conversation and your decision.

This is such bullshit. I hate the beliefs I have and the place I'm living. I can't get away from it and it doesn't matter what I do.

I know my baby is alive and I don't know any person would disagree with you. I'm not going to kill this baby to salvage my marriage. If I have the abortion it will be to save my own life and there's no waste of a life here.

I have went to church almost every Sunday and I know all there is to know about it. I have a strong faith in God who loves me. I wish Christians who walk around with a pompous attitude would take their abortion views and shove it up their ass. I was doing just fine until every prolife zealot has to remind me how bad it is to kill a baby.

I am not responsible for how other people feel about abortion. No one is making the prolife women in my family have one but it's legal here and I can do it if I need to.

Why don't you think about doing an adoption? Your birth expenses -- and in some cases, your living expenses toward the end of pregnancy -- would be covered.

There's also a great site here that will give you $3,000 to help with baby expenses. That offer is signed in a contract and paid upon the birth of your little boy or girl. www.saveunbornlife.org

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

It would kill my mom if she knew how I felt.

I don't care if I'm breaking a moral code somewhere that says it's wrong, and I don't care if our state thinks they can stop us with their mandated bullshit, and I don't care about adoption.

Apparently shame guilt, anxiety and fear is all normal and some women grieve the babies, and I'm here because I'm going to cry about the peanut I didn't really want to kill. I went to day so I could prep for tomorrow and get appointment 1 out of the way. I can't even talk about what I really want because it's too heartbreaking.

So, tomorrow is your actual killing appointment?

Tell me what you really want and what you plan to do tomorrow then.

Honestly though, a baby shower is the easy part. I'm worried about your housing situation right now.

I'm not worried about it because I have asked forgiveness. That's wrong because even the bible says all sins are forgiven and Jesus died for the sins of all the world. I'm not going to stop asking God for forgiveness. That'd be stupid!!!!

I didnt cave to an abortion because I loved my baby but @ 5 weeks it really isn't really a big deal to me to kill my baby and I have too much on my mind to keep a baby that is unwanted by everyone. I think God forgives abortion.

I wanted to write you privately. Addison is a beautiful, beautiful name, but don't you think it's strange to give your baby such a gorgeous name and then pay someone to haul him/her off as "medical waste?"

Why don't you give some thought to actually taking good care of little Addison instead.... You could do it, you know.

No one HAS to abort their little one.

YES we DO need to abort the babies. Naming a baby is good for me.

Omg do you need a new opening question 😊

Why are you terminating him/her? I forgot what you had in your post.

It's ruining my sexy summer. I had plans.life doesn't want me happy. I'll get to the point too, if you support the death penalty, wars or taking a baby with a severe brain injury who can't breathe on its own off life support, Fuck off. Abortion is equal to yanking life support and I am in full support of doing it.

Would you wear a bikini pregnant?

I don't want anyone thinking im fat. Personally I have body image issues and want to abort for my boyfriend and what I look like when I don't eat sugary food.

[REDACTED]

Many girls terminate for that reason.

Gone are the days of "normal" body image issues.

Today, it's bulimia, anorexia, AND abortion.

How long have you been with him?

He's in college nutter. What do you have I could want?

Can you make it I don't gain weight anywhere just my boobs? Pay me to birth and take care of a kid? Know how many kids I list I want rn? ZERO. I had this weird connection since i was 10 to babies. I love love love love baby stuff and I love the name Addison but a baby makes you fat and I can't have a kid until I'm done with my education.

[REDACTED]

You certainly have a very shallow relationship with this guy. Any guy who has you this concerned with your body is not helping you in any way.

I hope you don't mind me writing you privately, but when you had your first abortion, I'm curious if you had a sonogram beforehand and if that sono pic became part of your memento to that baby...?

[REDACTED]

Hey!!

I kept mine. I only really kept it because it was my first pregnancy. Ultrasounds feel like the last piece of my baby is sitting in a folder, but I can't have the picture on my desk. It doesn't provide closure. My sister almost threw it out but I insisted on keeping it.

When someone dies you have gravestones, photos and memories. The father thinks I'm romanticizing it and I need to forget it and pretend it isn't happening. It is still my baby.

I self soothe and think of all the positives but I still need something tangible to keep in memory of my baby. I'm not waiting until the anniversary of this abortion to have a new memento.

I don't really want to add to my bracelet for my first baby. It's a different baby. Thoughts?

More questions, if you'll humor me: 1) Did you get your sono at a pro-life place or at the abortion clinic? 2) Have you ever known anyone else in your life (friend, family) to get a sonogram pic of her baby and then abort anyway?

I'm going to give you fair warning that I hate it when people question my decision or tell me they're prolife. When we choose not to have a baby we get so much crap, like people think we haven't thought it through again and again. I view it as my baby. I think it's disrespectful not to but I don't feel that I did the wrong thing so killing is ok. A friend and her husband went to a prolife center. They were separated from each other and she had to stare at a tv screen. They did not charge her for the ultrasound. She took the print home and aborted the following week.

worse. Abortion kills a baby and I'm debating with my mind and heart if it's really wrong. I'm meeting my husband at 1. He wants to discuss baby. 😞

f.1 friend of pygmygondwanas

f.1 friend of pygmygondwanas

I'm glad you're meeting him at 1:00 finally. You two need to talk, and you need to talk to him about more than just

I'm alive. 😊 Abortion feels like a safety cushion. I named my baby Cadence Jordan (Jordyn). I don't know why the name haunted me. I should have it tattooed. Came home with another dog. A replacement child? 😞

We waffle because we're women. I now know, I want to be a Mother but not yet. Right now I want to travel to Europe and I REALLY want to go on a cruise, ride more roller coasters, and dance at concerts. Hell anything including what I wrote before about my bottom line reason. MY version of a bucket list. If I can do that maybe I'll be satisfied. Maybe then I'll be ready to care for life.

f.1 friend of pygmygondwanas

f.1 friend of pygmygondwanas

Pretty name. I like "Cadence," in particular quite a bit.

Love that little baby of yours, f.1 friend of pygmygondwanas. It doesn't have to end like this... with another bracelet or tattoo.

Love your baby.

f.1 friend of pygmygondwanas

😞 I don't fuck men so I can love babies!! I have my rights to sexual intercourse and to be fucking FREE from babies and if anyone is outside I am going to give a donation to Planned Parenthood, because I can't shove them off the sidewalk. 😞

And what mementos will you purchase this time?

Permalink

f.1 friend of pygmygondwanas

I didn't want to be a mom yet. 😞 Probably a memorial tattoo with my baby's name when I have the money. I can't help but just feel like I really want to remember babies this way. A different way than the bracelet. It's not a memory of an abortion.

And it's why you almost cancelled your abortion.

I'm not sorry I killed my babies. When a married man wants you you forget about the wife.

I can't imagine having sex with one man the rest of the one life I have. I believe god has laws but I don't want to breed like somebody's bitch. I was headed to hell before the abortions, Abortion slammed the door shut on me.

Have you made any progress with figuring things out?

to me ▾

The only progress I've made is putting off the inevitable. I'm into lap dances, not baby playpens, and until that changes for me abortion will always be an option.

I am a woman of faith and I have been made to feel evil and malcontent. I see this like pulling the plug on someone.

I know what I'm doing and I'll like it. I love my life too much to give it all up for a kid that wasn't planned in the first place.

The appointment is moved to Tuesday. Why don't we just say it like it is? I'm happy to kill. If abortion is the worst and only evil deed I ever do I am really doing damn well.

Oh, but you are wrong -- I am up to my eyeballs with compassion for you.

My baby will continue to grow if I don't do anything. It's so much easier to go with what my desires are. I've always been perfectly comfortable with the idea of getting abortion if I wanted one.

If you don't hear back from me just assume I kept my appointment. I realize that DAMN, the baby is HERE and the battle that rages on is quite literally what kind of killing I consider it to be.

Tell me about the spiritual dilemma. I'm curious. And tell me about those other mirrors in the group.

What kind of killing do you consider it to be?

And are you naming your baby pre-kill? Some aborting mothers do.

P.S. Attached is a pic of a fetal model representing your baby's size, age, development, and even weight, if you could hold him/her.

to me ▾

It's not like I'm struck with the knowledge that I "don't actually know" what stage a fetus is a baby, or when pregnancy occurs. I'm not troubled by "when life begins." I'm not in a crisis pregnancy like many that come for help are. I'm not stuck with two kids and have no job to fall back on.

Holy controlling. I do not give a damn if the baby is intact or not. If I want it out of my body, out it GOES. If you think it's fully sentient you might be delusional.

I get priority over a piece of human that resides in my uterus. I'm held hostage for 9 months and this is the same situation with the same result. I kill them. I love cats. I don't love babies. I think about babies and there is a difference.

I can create babies. I can choose not to be a baby incubator. Us silly women. Thinking only of us and for ourselves. Miracle of life BS. No person in the right mind will be swayed by you because you are enslaved to yourself. Animals, humans. Creating life's not hard if your insides don't hate you.

If you do get pregnant make an appointment and have the fucker sucked out. If it's in my body I can have it removed. Why is this a difficult concept?

I never did have a big desire to be pregnant. I love animals. Animals don't interrupt my lifestyle. Do I always need to write a book and we will still not get anywhere. I do not want kids. I was forgiven by God a long time ago. I don't care if it goes off like a flash grenade this shit ain't happening.

You're like OMG an aborted baayyybeeee. I have plans. Like a vacation to a beach. I am intrigued you aren't trying to send me to a church. Good for you lol. Why can't you be a Christian that believes life starts at conception and leave other women alone. Maybe you want to piss me off when I enjoy my life, education, my cat. Why are you "shocked" when someone "blows a gasket"?

What do you think of that command of God?

The Bible says, "If you love me, you will obey my commands." -- John 14:23.

to me ▾

Obey the 10? No one cares. I don't give a tin shit about it but I know all about Jesus. Without the threat of burning in hell what else you got? Sanctimonious assholes. It's all about power. Drinking makes abortion hilarious. There's also this condition called "fetal alcohol syndrome". Obviously you think I am a murderer since I killed the first one. At this point what's two of them? Abortion is a approved form of killing. When I get a huge burst of love I can guarantee it will not be while I'm living my life.

Babies are money wasters and attention stealers and I don't want one in my life. Shrugs. The doula I found is not close. I'm human remember. You represent God in a terrible way.

Abortion is my personal choice.

Yes, or no?

We will be terminating and it does not matter how many babies, because they were all my choice. They are in my heart.

I am going to end this pregnancy my way and I never felt so in control of my life each time I did. Even if each prolife fuck wants to tell me it's murder, fine, I murdered 3 and I will murder 4. We can be contentious all day long and at the end of the day it's still my choice.

What did you name this baby?

Naming this one Jamie. Maybe when we are ready, we will meet.

If it was my own hand having to kill my baby and not just pay someone to do it, I could never do it. That is all I'm saying right now.

This is nuts and that's putting it mildly. When there is no revealed morality we're left with opinion. When it's left up to opinion it doesn't matter. You're talking to the wrong person, madam, if you want me to tell you murder is definitely wrong. Moral beings choose to "murder" every day and it's an emotional strain to choose. Two of three times I chose it willingly. This baby will not be here on Earth and I am fine with it. Naming this baby will help with the process.

At the end of the day it is my choice. Why don't we ask if I've ever killed anyone and what were the circumstances? Yes and it's life that makes you choose. I do not regret the abortions.

I regret how I feel about them.

The last time someone showed me aborted babies I wanted to do something to those pictures, but I didn't because they were a couple and I probably would have ended up on the concrete. I loved those babies. I had the last one four months and named the baby Neveah. I named the first Samuel. I didn't know the gender and I didn't believe in Heaven but that didn't matter. I know @17 weeks it was a horrible process and then I had to say goodbye. I believe we have a seed of morality that was planted in us but I still killed the babies. It's free will.

Abortions are less risky than pregnancy and childbirth. You know what, I am a living being and have the added advantage of being cognizant and able to make decisions, i.e., more than a human incubator. Abortions should be free.

If babies were born would you take them in and raise them? All of them? If not go suck a dick you hate so fucking much!! I've saved hundreds of thousands of dollars by having abortions. How much cash have you wasted on wastes of space? We don't need more simple-minded dimwits. Abort them all.

A number of women have had more than one abortion.

Multiple women have had multiple abortions.

It would be fucking fabulous if this baby aborted itself. Men need to have vasectomies.

As women we are the primary caregiver. I might have abortions the rest of my fucking life. You can't gestate the babies for me.

I didn't schedule a procedure yet. I've had so many abortions. What I don't fucking like is back to back motherfucking abortions and what I do love is naming the babies. I HATE human incubators!!

Morally I think of it like killing animals for food, but animals are for more sentient. I don't have a problem with preventing a life from ever being born. I've done it enough and happy as fuck about it LOL.

I'm not Catholic, but I am (Protestant) Christian. We share the same belief though with the Catholics in holding to the command of God "thou shall not murder." I know you're a professing atheist, but what do you think of that command as a basic moral principle? Thoughts?

[REDACTED]

Morals don't stop the women who want abortions from having it done. Non-viable humans have more privileges over one who has lived and had resources invested in them? Murder isn't automatically bad and I'm not bothered by it the least bit.

June 6. I'm just comfortable with the idea of abortion killing a life form. Did you know animals are far more sentient beings than babies and if we shouldn't kill anything we shouldn't kill animals? I like cow too much to not eat it so slaughter away.

Abortion is like sticking a baby in a blender. It hasn't always been rainbows and daises but it can be pretty damn fabulous as time goes on.

Law, culture, religion, are the only differences between killing baby rabbits you want to be rid of and putting a knife through the chest of a toddler. Situations and circumstances are always going to control morality. Bears protect their bear cubs, but humans barely can do that and we are somehow better than an animal? No fucking way.

My own opinion is the older you are the worse murder is. I'm more against it at birth then in the womb. I would be more pissed off at the killing of a two year old than a one year old. Maybe that's because I'm not a Mom to a one year old but you get my point. That's if you believe you can only murder humans.

IF humans really valued life killing wouldn't exist and neither would abortion. No one values all life.

Why is it that everyone thinks we don't know we're killing?

Depending on the day I think abortion is funny and of the times I have experienced blood and death I never flinch. If someone I really love was found dead yes it would bother me. After the second, third, fourth time it just becomes funny and we all have a good and bad in us. I love celebrating both.

It gives me all kinds of warm fuzzy feelings when there's not one damn thing you or any other anti can do about the abortions I have had.
